Authorization:

1. The supervisor (in consultation with the Chief Human Resources Officer and appropriate administrators) will determine the nature and scope of the CHC.
2. Human Resources will electronically submit job applicant/employee first and last name and email address to the CHC vendor. The CHC vendor will send the job applicant/employee an e-invite to complete an electronic consent and disclosure form which will then direct the applicant/employee to a data collection portal. The applicant/employee will also read the State Law Notices Regarding Employment Background Report and Summary of Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act. Human Resources will work with the job applicant/employee to ensure this process is completed.

Guidelines for Reviewing Criminal History Reports:

1. Convictions are not an absolute bar to employment but will be considered in relationship to the job requirements.
 - a. The supervisor (in consultation with the Chief Human Resources Officer and appropriate administrators) will consider the following when reviewing a criminal history report:

- The nature, severity and frequency of the offense or offenses;
 - When the offense or offenses happened; and
 - Whether a criminal conviction has a direct bearing on the individual's ability to fulfill job duties and responsibilities.
- b. An employment offer may be withdrawn or an employee may be terminated as a result of the above considerations.
2. Deliberate failure to disclose criminal conviction information may constitute cause for rejection of the applicant's application or termination of employment.
